

Tactical Performance Pistol and Carbine with low light session
(This course is restricted to Law Enforcement/Military only)

Instructor:

Frank Proctor
Way of the Gun, LLC

Frank Proctor has served for over 18 years in the military; the last 11 of those with US Army Special Forces. Over the last 7 years he has trained DOD personnel in Combat Marksmanship, Close Quarters Battle, Breaching and Sniper/Observer Operations in addition to deployments to both Afghanistan and Iraq.

His courses are based off a proven methodology involving a complete understanding of the Fundamentals and Principles of Performance Marksmanship, efficient techniques to manipulate the guns, how to move efficiently, and perhaps most importantly, how to "see fast".

He is a highly sought after top-level instructor who also holds the rank of USPSA Grand Master in Limited Division and a Master ranking in IDPA Stock Service Pistol. He brings his combined experiences as a Special Forces Operator, Competitive Shooter and Instructor to each of his courses.
